Inclusion and Access Youth Bursaries

The Sea School provides tuition bursaries of up to 100% for young individuals from historically underrepresented communities in outdoor recreation programming. This encompasses, but is not restricted to, Indigenous Peoples, Black, Asian, Latinx, LGBTQIA2S+ individuals, people experiencing gender barriers, people with disabilities, refugees, immigrants, those from single-parent households, individuals from low socioeconomic backgrounds, and other marginalized communities. Our objective is to foster an inclusive environment where all young people, irrespective of their backgrounds, can participate in outdoor activities.

Is this youth a member of an underrepresented community? If so, please elaborate.

Income Assistance and Youth In Care Bursaries with NS Dept. of Community Services

The Sea School offers 100% tuition bursaries for youth from Halifax Regional Municipality who meet ONE of the following criteria: 1) The youth is on income assistance 2) The youth is the dependent of a parent / guardian on income assistance 3) The youth is in care
Are you requesting this bursary for a youth from Halifax Regional Municipality who meet ONE of these criteria?
